STUDENT ESSAY QUESTION – In 500 words or less, please describe several experiences from your life where you significantly demonstrated important qualities such as curiosity, initiative, creativity, motivation, diligence and/or perseverance. Examples of valuable experiences include travel, extracurricular activities such as sports or volunteering.

Explain why you have chosen your intended major or future career goals. Try to link this interest to your larger life goals and what you hope to accomplish. Highlight how each experience that you describe has changed you. Focus on how it helped you to define goals, develop an appreciation or to identify a belief or value.

Discuss any work experience you may have that is relevant to your field of study and describe how the work experience has helped to develop your interest in this area.

Finally, briefly describe why this scholarship is important to you.
